

Psychologist / Counsellor

Responsibilities:

The successful applicant will be responsible for counselling, case management, public and professional education programmes, clinical research and promoting the visibility of the Centre as a provider of counselling services for people with psychiatric and stress-related health problems.

You are a preferred candidate if you have:

Bachelor/Postgraduate qualifications in Psychology

Interest in Clinical/Health Psychology

Up to 2 years of experience in counselling

Clinical experience in helping people with chronic illness and mental health problems.

Proficiency with English and Mandarin

Drive to excel independently and as team-player

Be prepared to work some evenings and weekends due to nature of service